7. Correspondence

Letter to Robert C. Meador, P.E., Pinellas County Public Works, from the City of Belleair Beach stating position regarding proposed Gulf Boulevard dynamic message signs. It was noted that the towns and cities are opposed to the signs. It was also noted that all towns and cities are opposed to the off-shore drilling and all have completed resolution to this affect.

8. New Business

Sheriff Bob Gualtieri updated the board on the progress being made with the teen auto thefts and how it is a county wide issue. Another issue is school safety. The sheriff's office will be hiring an additional 156 deputies to put in the schools throughout the county. The startup cost for this will be 11.2 million to purchase vehicles, equipment and for training of the deputies. The deputies should be in place by July 1st. The sheriff stated that there is an enhanced coverage on the beaches for spring break.

9. Old Business

Discussion on the new Interlocal Agreement for Penny for Pinellas (Penny) IV funds, and consideration of reallocating funding within the current agreement to incorporate into the new agreement. (see backup) Mayor Simons noted that the sub-committee needs a third member and nominated Mayor Soranno. Mayor Queen made the motion to appoint Mayor Soranno to the sub-committee and seconded by Mayor Johnson. The voice vote was unanimous. The letter from Mark Woodard was discussed and the sub-committee will make an appointment with Mr. Woodard to discuss the funding for 2020-2030.

10. Miscellaneous

No miscellaneous business.

11. Legislative Update

County Commissioner Charlie Justice stated that the commission is working on funding for the startup costs for the sheriff's office. He also noted that the commission is committed to help solve funding for the beach re-nourishment. They are in the process of hiring a new administrator, as Mr. Woodard will be retiring December 31st.
